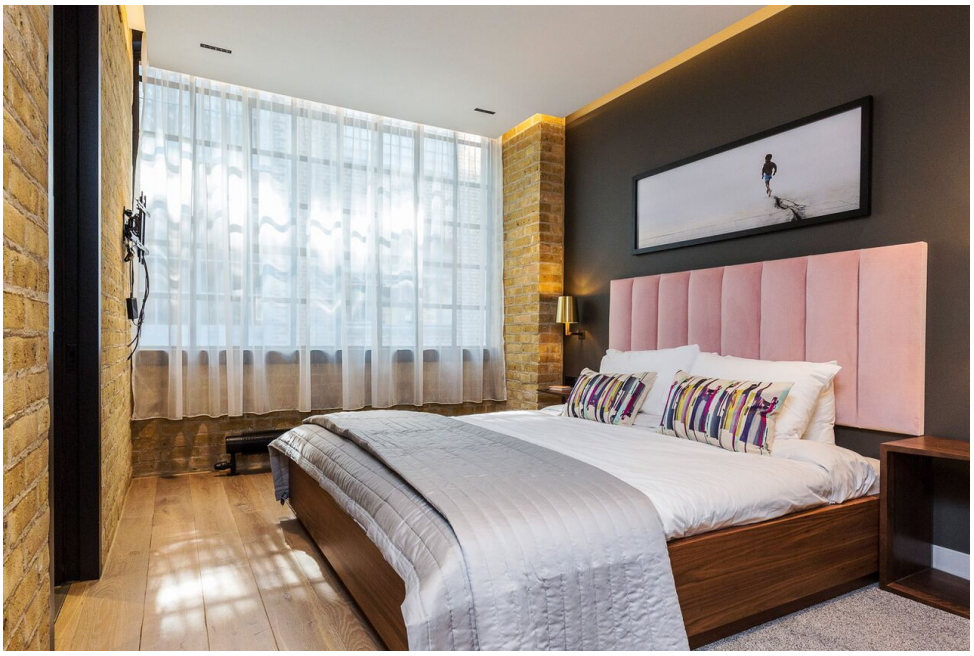
Native Bankside

Empire Warehouse, 1 Bear Gardens, London SE1 9ED



Native Bankside is located in what was once a Victorian tea warehouse moments from the River Thames in Southwark – south of the river. Native Bankside sits back from the Thames in a charming and picturesque cobbled street. Lovingly restored over a number of years Native have remained true to the history of this property embracing exposed brickwork, original arched windows and polished concrete. Native Bankside is a new direction for Native – providing more than just an apartment. There is a reception area with residence lounge, a pantry offering complimentary grab and go breakfast and for fitness fanatics there is an on-site gym. Free high speed Wi Fi throughout the property.

Choose between cosy crash pad, studio, standard one bedroom, premium one bedroom and two bedroom duplex apartments all with en-suite bathroom and fully fitted and equipped kitchenette perfect for relaxing after a long day sightseeing or in the office. This modern twist on the classic is fresh and new and ready for occupation.
